

Joe, In His Own Words

Sunday, 24 August 2008

From the Democratic debates, examine what Joe Biden thinks of gun owners:

My guns are not my babies; I don't cherish them.

But I do cherish the freedom they represent. They are physical manifestations of the power of the citizenry recognized by the founding fathers.

What a guy. By choosing Biden, Obama once again highlights his respect for the Second Amendment, as a constitutional scholar. Right.

Hat tip to a helpful reader.
